ALUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A ALUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A THE OF CONTENT ATEC CONTENT 25X1A DATE PREPARED 29 July 1953 EFFERENCES AGGS 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS 1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Prenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the bearrack installation southeast of Porliner Strasse and elternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black sepaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black sepaulets of the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bursand that lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical spelling) (Inu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Phonetical Prenzlau. The officers aention except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (Inu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.	OUNTRY	East Germany REPORT NO	1 A
ALLUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A 25X1A ALLUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25 July 1953 EFFERNCES AGES 1ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)	0.51.6
ALUMINON	JP10
ALUMINON		25X1X PLACE OPTAINED 25X1A	1.10
ATE COTAINED 25X1A DATE PREPARED 29 July 1953 EFFERENCES AGES 1ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) EMARKS 1. Cn 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Frenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Serliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black expulets and armod with 2 light machine guns. They were cocupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black expulets from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse, Fatrols were dissontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chermin and Fugazov (all fmu), had been trainferred and that the transfer of Ideutenant Colonel Nazian (fmu) was scon expected, Ideutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fmu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fmu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 22. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2.		PLACE OBTAINED.
25X1X OURCE 1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black espaulets and arred with 2 light machine guns. 18 They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black espaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse, attrics were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fun), had been trait-ferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuanin (fan) was soon expected, Lieutenant Colonel Kasionek (fan). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 2. Comment. It is believed that no troops had been transferred to Prenzlau during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers aentione except for Lieutenant Colonel lusina (fan), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.	ATE OF CO		-
I. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Prenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the berracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately particled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black spaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black expaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Perliner Strasse installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been trainferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzain (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2	ATE CBTAI	NED	rs.
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Frenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the berracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns.	EFERENCE	S
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu) had been trassferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kasionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2	AGES	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu) had been trassferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kasionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2. 2	YMARKS		· Tankanina
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.	-
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.	Branch Window Month 707
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Brenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Ferliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.			····(gengala yakan ya s
1. On 17 and 18 June 1953, there were no demonstrations at the Frenzlau post. Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the bearacks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been trasferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzinin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 24 25 26 26 27 28 1	OUDCE	25X1X
Armored personnel carriers were stationed in the barracks installation southeast of Berliner Strasse and alternately patrolled the town. They were manned by 1 officer and 5 EM wearing red-bordered black epaulets and armed with 2 light machine guns. They were occupied by each 24 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets from the barracks installation southeast of Perliner Strasse. Patrols were discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with three other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of 24 25 26 26 27 28 10 11 12 12 29 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 20 2	JUNUE	·
2. 1. Comment. It is believed that no troops had been transferred to Prenzlau during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.
1. Comment. It is believed that no troops had been transferred to Prenzlau during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.		discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the	ree /
1. Comment. It is believed that no troops had been transferred to Prenzlau during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.	.II	discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the	re e 2
during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.		discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of	25 25
during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.		discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of	25 25
during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the guard detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers mentione except for Lieutenant Colonel Musina (fnu), are known as belonging to the division in Prenzlau.		discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of	25 25
		discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was soon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of	25 25
	2.	discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the g detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers men except for Lieutenant Colonel Rusina (fnu), are known as belonging to the	25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 2
	2.	discontinued after 22 June. No changes were observed in the barracks installation. Source learned at the special construction bureau that lieutenant Colonels Vosenko, Chernin and Pugazov (all fnu), had been transferred and that the transfer of Lieutenant Colonel Kuzmin (fnu) was scon expected. Lieutenant Colonel Musina (phonetical spelling) (fnu) arrived as successor for Lieutenant Colonel Kazionek (fnu). The latter, along with the other officers, was seen leaving the barracks installation southeast of during the demonstrations; the patrols, therefore, were furnished by the g detail of the 25th Tank Div which had stayed in Prenzlau. The officers men except for Lieutenant Colonel Rusina (fnu), are known as belonging to the	25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 25 2